
PROCEEDINGS

THE MIDWINTER MEETING

The General Meeting of The Indiana State Bar Association was called to order at 11:10 o'clock, January 13, 1945, in the Assembly Room, of the Claypool Hotel, President Aaron H. Huguenard presiding.

MR. NEWKIRK: Mr. President, due to the limitation that is about to be placed or has been placed upon the holding of conventions, it has been suggested that a resolution be offered, and I now offer the following resolution:

Be it Resolved by The Indiana State Bar Association that during the war emergency the Board of Managers may exercise the following power:

1. Submit to the members of the Association for a vote by mail any matters now required to be voted on at the annual or mid-winter meeting of the Association.

2. Determine whether or not meetings of the Association shall be held.

I move the adoption of this resolution.

The motion was duly seconded, was put to vote and was carried.

Mr. Gray then presented a resolution establishing a War Readjustment Committee.¹ The resolution carried.

Mr. Harding presented a report of the Board of Managers on the legislative program, which report was adopted.²

At this point, Prof. Russell N. Sullivan, of the University of Illinois and Acting Advisor to the Section on legal education of the American Bar Association addressed the meeting on the subject of "Postwar Legal Education."

The meeting adjourned at 12 o'clock.

1. For the text of the resolution see, 20 Ind. L.J. 196 (1945).

2. For the text of the report see, 20 Ind. L.J. 195 (1945).
